

Date: Saturday, October 22, 2016
 Time: 11:00 am
 Place: Bellefort Plantation
 275 Robersonville Road, Washington, NC

October 22, 2016 Patriot Major Reading Blount Grave Marking Ceremony

Please join in honoring a patriot of the American Revolution who served as an officer in the Continental Army and was cited for bravery beyond the call of duty. This was his plantation and where he is buried. The ceremony is sponsored by the General George Washington Chapter of the NCSSAR. After the ceremony you are invited to join us at Hog Heaven Restaurant, 1959 West 5th Street, Washington, NC. This is not a prepaid meal but they would like to know the number.

Mail the form below to: Ronald Clark Bonham
 GGWC Secretary
 2356 East Fire Tower Road
 Greenville, NC 27858

Questions? Please email doctorcobel@hotmail.com or 252-347-9117

Must be received by Sunday, October 16, 2016 to be included in the program

WE WILL ATTEND THE CELEBRATION ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2016, at 11:00 am

Name _____

Spouse/Other Guest _____

Are you presenting a wreath? Yes ___ Name of presenter(s) _____

Name of organization _____

Will you be on Colonial Attire? Continental Uniform Yes ___ Militia Uniform Yes ___ Civilian Yes ___

Are you a member of? SAR ___ Chapter _____

DAR ___ Chapter _____

CAR ___ Chapter _____

OTHER _____

Will you be joining us for lunch? Yes ___ Number ___

If you are presenting a wreath or participating in

Are you able to bring and fire a musket or rifle? Yes ___

the color guard, please arrive on or before 10:30

Your Email address: _____